OWFC Business Code of Conduct / Annual Subs

A new season is upon us . With a further influx of juniors and schoolboys , plus training and a couple of teams playing through the summer. Our hopes are high. We have 7 teams on Saturday & the Vets on Sundays playing league football . Supervets will continue to play friendlies on Sundays.

We have kept annual subs for 21s & over in employment to £150 & under 21s in employment £75, both pay £10 weekly subs . If you are playing 4 or less games you will pay £20 match fees , but no annual subs. Junior members paying annual subs to the junior section & schoolboys pay no annual subs but pay £5 weekly subs. Vets due to the number of games pay annual subs , Supervets pay £50 annual subs & £10 per game match .

Unemployed please chat to your skipper or Stu Dunk (treasurer or me (asst treasurer) and we will agree something that is workable for you as we want you to play . Annual subs are due on 30th September 2025 . We are using Pitchero & you should have an email to confirm your details, receive newsletters , about events also paying your annual subs or outstanding fines like yellow and red cards.

Why the rise in annual subs ? our rent to the association has gone up by 7.5% this season taking it above £24,000 per annum . The reason is ground maintenance (looking after both hayes & Hawesdown) costs £71,000 per year (up from £60,000 last season due mainly to the extra cost of running Hawesdown), utilities has gone from £21,000 in 2021 to over £54,000 in 2025. So it is important you pay your annual subs on time as we look to break even. Its also important you support events not only so you meet players from other teams but also have some fun & hopefully we make a bit of money , which will hopefully keep your annual subs as low as possible Also find a code of conduct we expect all our member to follow. Please read them as this is the minimum we expect as a club. Here's to a great season , good luck & enjoy

Match Report: OWs 3s v Sunnah Away 28th March

The 3s travelled only a stones throw away from Bromley, although the settings were a far-cry from the Hayes carpet and sunny clubhouse they had become used to.

A formidable roster crammed into the prison block changing room for an early KO, all except Tyler who thought every train in England leaves from Clapham Junction. Burns added to the luxurious conditions by scraping his dog shit trodden shoes all over the benches, leaving a nice aroma in the air.

Despite all this the spirits were high. Cuzza (coming purely to support) ran errands for beers and snus, ensuring everyone was locked in and focused on the match. 3 points today was an absolute must.

Eager to start the match, Sunnah kicked off, and it wasn't long until drama followed. Toby plays a hospital pass into the path of the Sunnah striker and then cleans him out running through 1v1, managing to injure himself in the process. It's no secret that that particular ref makes up rules, but thankfully he forgot what a red card is too. A big let off but exactly what was needed to kick us into gear. Max quickly opens the scoring with his trademark scrappy finish from a corner and minutes later Magneesium curls a fine effort into the top corner from the edge of the box.

In typical 3s fashion we then take our foot off the gas, assuming we've already won the game. A mix up from Harley and Cummo at the back sees the Sunnah striker poke home to pull it back to 2-1. With hail raining down and touches flying all over the place, the boys start getting frustrated. Harley takes a heroic stud to the face off a corner which erupted in a team scrap. Louie was especially angry that he got held back and couldn't build on his thug reputation from last week.

Thankfully the best OWs player on the day, the Sunnah goalkeeper, made it 3-1 with a silky fake shot into his own net. Neesium stood on the halfway line doing the Bellingham celebration to ensure it's logged as his second of the day.

A trademark 3s half time team talk followed. One minute shouting to hoof it long, the next minute calmly saying to keep it on the floor. Either way, something must have stuck with the team as they were dominant in the second half. Missed chances from McDonkwell and Whetton kept the scoreline competitive. That's until Jack Burns bullied his way through the Sunnah defence to smash it home for 4. The game was as good as over. Not even a Cummo sin bin could spark a revival in the oppo.

Final whistle 4-1. Safe to say Sunnah were dejected after the convincing loss with their captain delivering a Shelton esc hairdryer, "Mandem, no tactics are working!"

The next stop was the Duck Inn. After driving around and realising it didn't exist the boys stumbled into the nearest pub, which was nothing short of an incredible boozer. Cuzza set the mood by buying his customary round of 20 jagers. Sonny was clearly knackered from a sleepover in Bromley Premier Inn the night before. Weirdly he couldn't find a single photo of the lucky lady, I'm sure she was a real stunner though. Burns was caught practicing his POTS speech in the toilets. Good of him to miss his nephew's 36th birthday for the awards ceremony. Cuzza was enquiring if anyone knew a steroids dealer (he's still interested btw). There's only room for one big striker on the pitch (Burns watch out). Atty was clearly battling to stay within the drink drive limit so the pints stopped there. Tyler had to make his fresh pasta anyway so it worked out well.

Shit ground, good win, great boozer and hitting form in the vital part of the season.

UTF3s!

Sat 28th March Match Report: Old Wimbledonians 2 – 2 Old Wilsonians 4s

A dramatic finish capped off an entertaining contest as Old Wilsonians 4s and Old Wimbledonians shared the points in a 2–2 draw. Both sides battled hard throughout, with the match swinging back and forth before ending in spectacular fashion.

Old Wilsonians started brightly away from home, however it was Old Wimbledonians who took the lead midway through the first half. 1–0 to the home side heading into the break.

The visitors gained parity early in the second half, after a defensive lapse from a GOWTHAM corner to make it 1–1.

As the game wore on, both sides pushed desperately for a winner, creating a flurry of late chances.

Wimbledonians finding the Wilsonians keeper KING in fine form and NIKO being frustrated by the woodwork on two occasions.

Following an expert clearance off the line by BUSIA, Wimbledonians gained the lead directly via a fortunate lofted through ball, 2–1.

Then, deep into stoppage time, came the moment of the match. A looping cross into the box from GOWTHAM fell kindly for TIFFIN, who produced a stunning overhead kick from close range to level the scores at the death.

The goal sent the travelling fans (the substitutes) into raptures and salvaged a well-deserved point for Old Wilsonians.

Final Score: Old Wimbledonians 2–2 Old Wilsonians 4s

Goals: OG, Tiffin (90+4)

Assists: Gowth (2)

Man of the Match: Niko

Dorkinians 7th XI 6 – 0 Old Wilsonians 7th XI

A lovely, bright day — a little on the cold side — played on a very good pitch.

Squad: Dan Morriss, Alex Forbes, Jack Sharp, Casey Munyakazi, James Hartnup, Bruce Graham, Paul Hartnup, Liam Wells, Antony Vinsan, Jon Small, Dan Hartnup, Jack Parkman, Harley Weston.

First Half

The first 20 minutes were fairly even. Jon Small found plenty of space down the right, and although Dorkinians controlled the centre midfield areas, we held our shape well early on.

We switched from our usual 4-3-2-1 to a 4-4-2, and this ultimately caused us problems. We were overrun centrally, and Dan Hartnup was dropped deeper to try to stem the flow.

Unfortunately, within 10 minutes both Hartnups limped off, leaving a huge gap in midfield that we were unable to properly fill for the remainder of the game. Dorkinians exploited this relentlessly, finding pockets of space and pulling us apart.

We went in 0–2 down at half-time:

one goal from tidy, intricate passing,
the other a long-range effort — or possibly a mis-hit cross .

Second Half

The second half became attack vs defence, with Dorkinians pinning us in for long spells.

Three of their goals came from us trying to dribble or play out under pressure — not especially surprising given the lack of passing options ahead and the weakened midfield.

Despite the scoreline, there were notable performances:

James Hartnup (Man of the Match)

Bruce Graham

Jack Sharp

All put in strong shifts despite the circumstances.

This week's issues largely stemmed from the formation change — my mistake, and it left us exposed in the middle from the outset. We also need to improve fitness; the final 15 minutes really highlighted the drop-off. And when under pressure, we need to keep the ball better and avoid forcing play in dangerous areas.

Two games left — lessons learned, regroup, and move forward.

Onwards and upwards.

MEADONIANS PUT TO THE SWORD - TWICE 7th XI 6 (5) Old Meadonians 0 (1)

Two comfortable games for the 7th XI against a spirited Medonian side. The first game was over as a contest when we found ourselves 6-0 up after only 20 minutes, our first two goals being scored by the hapless Meadonian right-back, the first being an absolutely brilliant volley from 20 yards.

After this 'gift' start we over-ran Meadonians and further goals came from du CASSE, DEADMAN, DUTTON and LEHMAN. The second half, not surprisingly, was a bit of an anti-climax, with both sides re-charging for the second game.

As for that second game it was a lot closer, and although we took an early lead through JAY BREEN, Meadonians equalised from a corner, and we only regained the lead just before the break, the percievering JAY GREEN again being the scorer.

Meadonians tired in the last half hour and we added a fourth goal through NICK LEHMAN before JAY BREEN completed his hat-trick.

Pikey,

I can confirm that the Club's best 5th XI goal-keeper was myself (All Our Yesterdays – issue 1091)

Whilst appreciating that most people think my clean sheets start at four (five, actually – ed) I feel I must protect my image by drawing your attention to three 2nd XI appearances in goal when I was 40, and that two of those were clean sheets. (The 2nd XI defence was very good at the time, so you rarely had a shot to save – ed)

By the way, did you know that the Old Boys League has an excellent website that is updated and contains league tables and results amongst other things? Might be worth drawing that to the members' attention, and downloading the league tables to save your ageing fingers,

All the best, Cat

Stranger than fiction department

Leaving Selhurst Park on Saturday I spotted a young lad wearing a football shirt with a large number 7 on his back and the name of his hero emblazoned above it. It read 'Bevan'

WINNING RUN CONTINUES Shene Old Grammarians 1 7th XI 3

The 7th XI travelled to Shene for a game against mid table placed Shene OGs confident of collecting another three points. The first half was a scrappy affair, with both sides seemingly unable to do anything constructive with the ball. We had the better players but Shene appeared to want it more, and we tended to cancel each other out.

We took the lead from a corner when GREG RICE bundled the ball into the net, but failed to capitalise and only the woodwork saved us from conceding on two occasions.

In the second half Shene went in search of the equaliser, but the introduction of Mark James into centre midfield gave us a much needed impetus, and it was Mark who set up our second when he pulled the ball back from the bye-line for GARETH EVANS to turn the ball home.

We then allowed Shene a goal from a free-kick but, defensively, we were very solid, with debutant goal-keeper John Hallett handling superbly when called upon.

Finally, and in the last ten minutes, we started to play to our capable standard and a move, starting on the right, was switched by Danny Blake with an excellent cross-field ball to JAY BREEN, who took a touch and launched the ball from 30 yards for a quality goal. This is exactly what Jay can bring to the team, and we just need to see more of this from him, but this comment could be levelled at several of our players as, although we won, we are capable of so much more!

AFA Cup Final - Played at Hayes

A last minute goal enabled UCL Accademics to beat Polytechnic 2-1 and thereby win the AFA Cup. A big 'Thank You' to everyone for their help in ensuring that the day was a tremendous success as we proved to be first class hosts on this big occasion for AFA football.

Special thanks to grounds-man Colin Mc Causland and ground manager George Wing for providing as good a pitch as you will find anywhere at this time of the season, and to George and Janet Smith for their catering expertise after the game.

In Forbes, Mike Harris, Mick Pilgrim and Dave Stewart organised expertly and efficiently, whilst thanks are also due to the 1st and 3rd XIs, and their respective opponents, for agreeing to re-arrange their kick-off times to give maximum prominence to the Cup Final.

All in all a good day, with the reputation of the OWFC further enhanced for all to see.

THE 1975/76 SEASON FOR THE 3RD XI

Writing these notes on the 3rd XI with two league games to play, I think it is still fair to say that the side had had a reasonably successful season, whatever the outcome of those two games. We have established ourselves in the league and did manage to reach the semi-final of the Old Boys Cup whilst, having been involved, up until now, in the tussle for the championship or runners up position, it must be admitted that we are not good enough to have won it and can only blame ourselves for that.

However, it has, overall, been an enjoyable season and I like to think that all those people who have played in the 3s have enjoyed doing so. As for the social side, I am afraid that those who did not enjoy that part of the game must concede that it is their own fault, because we are arguably the best social side in the Club!

It has been suggested that I write a few words on some of the 3rd XI characters, so here goes:

Jim Marsh: Has quite deservedly gone up to the Reserves and without him earlier in the season, we would not have maintained our fight for the championship. Undoubtedly the best “natural” goal-keeper in the Club, and if he can correct the couple of faults in his game – and he probably knows them better than anyone – he must start pressing Rod Hall for the 1st XI jersey

Ian Rayworth: Probably the most consistent player in the side and a great asset to us all season

Ian Forbes: His understanding with Ian Rayworth has meant a great deal to us and I certainly appreciate his taking over the captaincy for the couple of games I was not playing

Lou Barry: Lou has not played for us for the last couple of weeks but, and throughout the season, he has been the ideal team player. He has often been asked to play a specific role and always did so without complaint and, in the memorable victory over Parmits, was my choice of ‘Man of the match.’

Ray Jenkins: I am sure that Ray would agree that, if he could keep really fit – well, reasonably fit! – his game would improve by at least 50%. He is undoubtedly a very skilful player and capable of some really penetrating defence splitting passes

Ray Howell: In what must have been a very disappointing season for Ray with injuries etc, he has always maintained the greatest interest in the side and, whenever possible, came to selection meetings to help me out, and I would like to thank him for that

John Cowell: It has been good to have someone of genuine pace in the side and this, together with John's directness, has been useful to us. I wish John would encourage other players more but, on the whole, he has been a good team player

Larry Bartlett: Larry decided to take his football seriously this season and got himself fit and turned in some memorable performances for us and fully deserved his promotion to the 2nd XI

Steve Smith - 3rd XI skipper

Football Quiz

A few weeks ago, Terry Adams set a football quiz, offering prizes that would put 'Sale of the Century' to shame, (Mind you, most things put 'Sale of the Century' to shame.) So far no-one has managed to come up with the answers and, as next week's newsletter is the last of the season, you have just one week to sort out the answers, so put your brains to work and get a jug from Terry.

A very much changed team, blustery conditions, hard ground and a very light ball, need I go on?

Earlier in the season, and on this ground, we comprehensively beat Centymca 4-0, but we really made hard work of it today. It took Mike Kendrick, who was good enough to turn out at the last minute, some time to get used to the pace; never mind Mike, a few more games! I will say this for him, though – it did not take him long to get to know the referee well, even to the extent of the latter wondering what Mike's name is; no doubt he wants to keep in touch!

Centymca opened the scoring mid-way through the first half with a long clearance, with the wind, over the top of our defence and there was Martin Taylor left..... helpless.

We three - Bill Newman, Les Wilks and I – were of the opinion that we would never score, other than through an own goal. However, and happily, Nigel Hough was taking very good corners from both wings and, suddenly, there was the old grey head of MIKE KENDRICK, nodding one straight as an arrow into the net – 1-1, with the spectators confounded and delighted.

And a few minutes later we were 2-1 ahead. Another good corner from Nigel Hough, a scrimmage in the goal mouth and there was 'The old chap KENDRICK' stretching out a leg and pushing the ball beyond the 'keeper and into the net. We then held out quite comfortably with few, if any, chances at either end.

Not a good game. The conditions were against it, and who can blame such a changed team for a not quite up to par performance. Never mind. Well done chaps; another two points and a time for reflecting ruefully about what might have been had we not thrown away silly points earlier in the season.

At 2-00 p.m. on Saturday the 4th XI were two matches away from the Championship but, by 5-00 p.m, they had lost an extremely poor game to mediocre opponents. Between 2-00 p.m and 2-30 p.m the 4th XI's captain selected his team, having lost no fewer than four players to higher teams, plus one who dropped out on Friday night.

It might well be that the unavailability of players in the higher teams was unavoidable, but the inevitable result was that a season of hard work went to waste and the possibility of a League Championship for the Club was lost!

As for the game itself, and although the players drafted into the side acquitted themselves well, a lack of understanding and teamwork was evident from the way in which goals were conceded at regular intervals and individual effort was not enough to make up for our short comings
