2’s V Poly, Away, 3 - 2

Unbelievably our game was on despite those around us being rained off. The pitch was itself miraculously in a very good condition.

And so for another stormy game in London. We looked the stronger team from the outset and before too long, even whilst facing the wind in the first half, a high through ball by Elliot found its way to DEMOLA who oh-so-calmly slotted past the keeper to give OWFC the lead.

Things were always going to be tough against a near gale wind and Poly reserves did get back into it through a nicely dinked ball firstly from the assist then as a finish over Powley.

No matter, the lead was re-established not too long afterwards, the ball coming back out to ELLIOT whose long-range against-the-wind strike somehow edged past their poor goalkeeper and gave us the advantage for the second period.

The wind died down and the sun came out for the switch of ends. Typical. Nevertheless, we were dominant throughout. A couple of chances came and went before a lifted through ball by Karamath allowed SITCH through on goal to gracefully give us a two-goal cushion. And that should have been that really. We probably should have cut into our appalling goal difference deficit a bit, but it was not to be. In fact, we gave ourselves a bit of last 10 stress by conceding by their only meaningful chance of the second half.

Jon Howe was added to the fray and several swings later managed a shot on goal for which the rebounded was unfairly ruled offside. 2-3 to OWFC reserves it would have to stay.

Second in the league for now and two games to go.

Team: Powley, Mackley, Dunk, Free, Barnaby, Elliot, Taylor, Jeeven, Dixon, Karamath, Aoefulja, Howe, Sitch, Wright.

5’s v Alleyns, Away, 7 - 2

After a venue change we turned up to play Alleyns Away on a blustery day in deep Bermondsey.

Whilst Chunk felt right at home, the French boys had never seen anything like it.

After a quick sing and dance the boys were changed and once a lacklustre stag do’s bubble football had finished we were on the 4g to play.

The pitch was narrow and we knew this was going to be a tough day. Tactical mastermind Chunk switched up the line up and formation and we soon found ourselves 1-0 down against the run of play.

We just needed to keep playing the 5’s way.

JAMES equalised before STEWARD scored a peach of a goal from the edge of the area, a swiveling volley which can only be described as a complete and utter worldie making it 2-1 to the 5’s.

TASS found his rhythm and smashed in a long range goal to make it 3-1.

Morley was extremely lucky to get away with numerous clear handballs in our own penalty area and he for one was extremely happy to hear the half time whistle.

Half time and Chunk asked us to go full throttle second half and improve our goal difference. Of course that is what we did with a fantastic show of fast flowing attacking football. Paton had to shoot so James dropped back in to centre half.

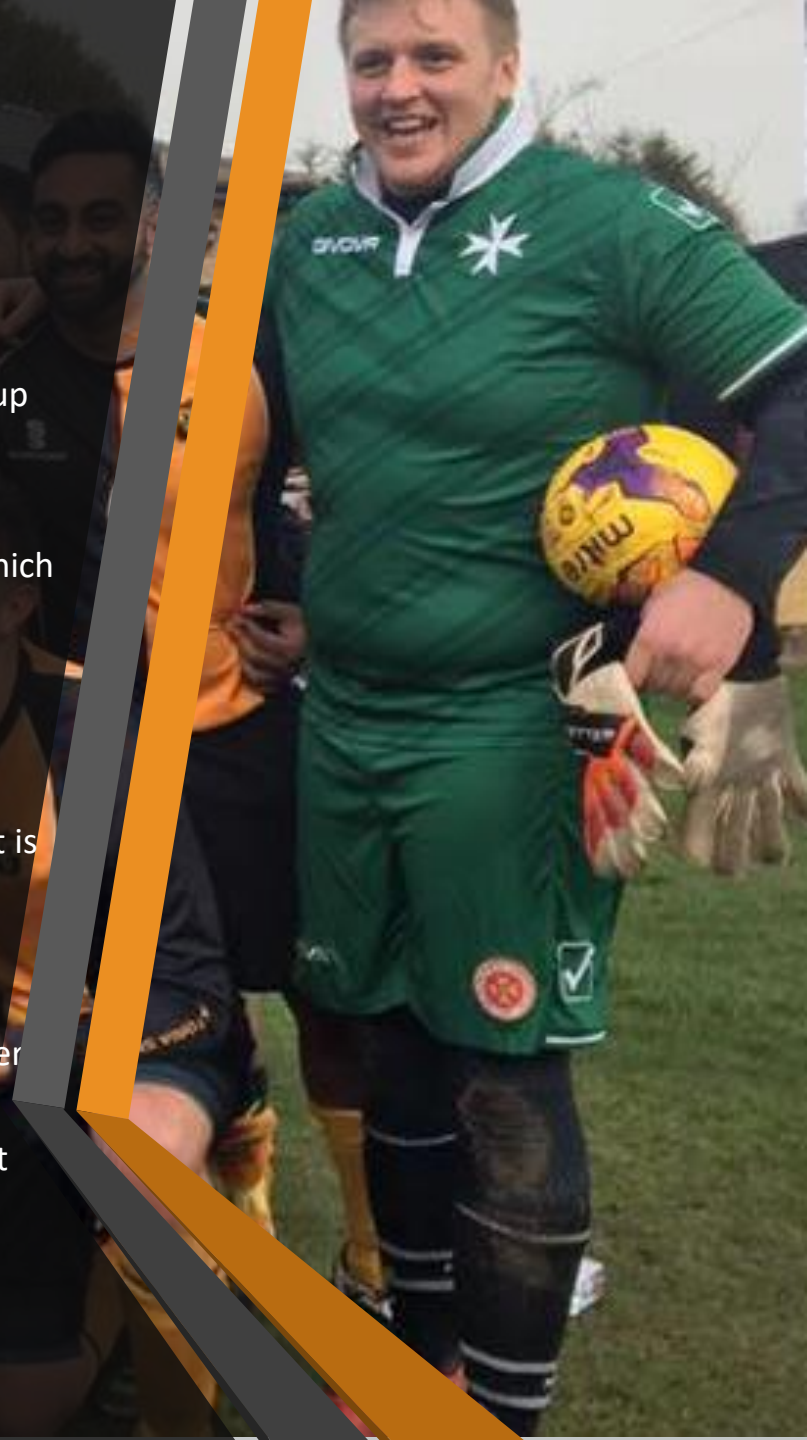

STEWARD AND FENTON both then scored a header each from set pieces.

In the midst of this Alleyns nicked one back. No panic though as FENTON scores another direct from a corner and STEWARD wrapped up a successful day with his hat-trick and the match all.

Final score 7-2 to the mighty 5’s. We then had a little party in Harris Academy sports centre hallway and got showered before heading to a naughty little Bermondsey boozer.

A nice little drink with the lads and the 5’s boat was sailing back on track (or water, Ed)

Scorers : Fenton 2, Tass Drame, James, Steward 3,

2’s v Actonians, Home, 3 -1 (played 22/2)

After a bad run of results losing our last 4 games, we went into this game with a new lease of life.

Surprisingly we actually started the brighter team for once and this showed in our performance as we piled on the pressure and had a lot of momentum with us. Unfortunately we didn’t capitalise on this and Acton grew into the game. We then put a few corners together with one of them leading to a goal by Ben Gylo GILES who smashed it into the back of the net.

We went into half time 1-0 up and very happy with our performance. Stu gave an inspiring team talk to the team.

This didn’t go too well as we started the second half under a lot of pressure and Acton we’re putting some nice plays together. They eventually ended up breaking us down with a very questionable decision by the ref awarding a penalty for handball. Despite this being the case, the keeper got a very strong hand to the penalty but the ball just crept in underneath him.

This in fact woke us all up and we started to play some nice football again. We put some nice moves together with Demola and Gylo forcing a few saves out of their keeper. Craig then put a lofted ball over the top which Demola AOFOLAJU decided to let it bounce about 5 times before kicking the ball, but this ended up to be a good decision as he chipped the ball over the keeper. 2-1 Old Wils.

We kept piling on the pressure and deserved a comfortable lead this was then provided when Gowtham put a wonderful cross into the box and Jimmy TAYLOR stuck his head on it and put it bottom corner which was well deserved. We finished the game comfortably with Demola missing an absolute sitter last minute of the game after calling for it exactly where he wanted it but put the ball wide. This didn’t matter and we went on to win 3-1

MOTM: Demola

Team: Luke Bradley, Josh Mackley, Syd Sherlock, Ben Middleton, Alex Karamath, James Taylor, Gowtham Jeevan, Craig Elliott, Demola Aofolaju, Ben Giles, James Karamath, Tom Dixon, Stu Dunk

5s v Actonians, Away, 1 – 1 (played 22/2)

After a torrid journey across the London Underground network we arrived to play Actonians away. We headed over to the 4g and got down to business against Acton.

From the start we got the ball down on the deck and started knocking it about on the flat surface. Wind was causing havoc for both teams as was Josh Godfrey causing havoc on the right wing for Wilson's, fresh back from 2 weeks in the Caribbean. We let in a sloppy goal as Acton edged in to the lead and found ourselves 1-0 down.

We continued to play football and tried getting a foothold in the game. We hit the woodwork 3 times but couldn't get the ball over the line. Adebayo hitting the post and James rattling the stanchion. Tass and Bowcat causing problems from the centre of the park with their quick feet and passing range.

Second half we threw the kitchen sink at Acton whilst they wasted time. We finally scored after Tass beat 2 players and cut back for JAMES to finish with his left foot. Pressure continued for the rest of the game and we couldn't nick a winner. Acton celebrated the draw like they had won a cup final.

We left not knowing how we didn't win that match. After a disappointing draw which is a change, something's never change, the lads in the bar afterwards. Team spirit on level 100, taking over the oppos clubhouse.

A birthday party in the bar getting us involved in Hattie's celebrations and generally everyone around smiling and living off the infectious energy that surrounds the 5's and the special group they have this year.

2 points dropped but we go again and nothing will put us down from this fine season we are having.

Anon.

Vets vs West Citz (played 26/1) 8 - 0

The OWFC Vets had their first match of 2020 v Westminster Citz.

The OWFC Vets played their annual match v Westminster Citz with a decent size and strong squad and took control of the match early and players who had lost to Old Sutts the previous were keen to make amends, especially James Karamath who was looking to control his football anger management by putting the ball in the back of the net rather than to the side of it.

OWFC took a 1-0 lead at half time with Pat Ducasse scoring while at the other end Brad Russell was on hand on the very few times Westminster Citz got past the back 4 of Reid, Pope, Smart and Billing with the midfield of Langley, Parkinson, Taylor, Carruth bossed it.

The second half the OWFC Vets stepped up the momentum as Westminster Citz started to tire and fade. Pat Ducasse scored a great second, Chris Kennedy scored to keep in touch with the clubs top scorers, James Karamath scored 2, James Taylor, Jon Howe and Doug Smart completed the goal fest.

Comedy and other moments included Si Elliott finally back and putting in some top draw crosses, James Taylor missing with his knee from a yard, some comedy Tikka Takka football in the corner, Pat Ducasse pulled off at least one trade mark back heel, Jon Howe had a shot blocked by Jamie Parkinson and Doug Smart won MOM mainly because he executed the slowest moving step over dummy ever seen at the club but still caught out the Westminster Citz centre forward.

Brad Russell, Lee Reid, Mark Pope, Jamie Parkinson, Doug Smart, Aaron Langley, Graeme Carruth, James Taylor, James Karamath, Jon Howe, Pat Ducasse, Chris Kennedy, Nick Billing, Si Elliott,

All other games postponed – as Stuart Paton explains; and so much more.

THE GAME THAT NEVER WAS or "But I've polished my boots; again "

A perfect, crisp, sunny February day. A heavy but playable pitch and a return to the 1st Xl since pre-season 1993. Memories came flooding back

My first experience of Old Wilsonians football came, as with most pupils, in a game on a Wednesday afternoon on the new Sutton school fields. I can clearly remember how the 'Old Boys' looked – very hairy. Remember, it was the mid '70s and sideburns and beards were all the rage. We, of course, tried to imitate our peers but Eric Massey cracked down, and my 'Peter Osgood' sideburns were outlawed

We had tremendous commitment in those games, it has been of years since the school had triumphed. But this year we battled and fought and ran and ran to a 3-1 victory with, as I recall, Chris McAllister and Graham 'Yosser' Hughes forming the rest of the school's midfield

And so to my first Old Boys 1st Xl game, a late season affair in a far flung corner of Barkingside, it must have been circa 1979/80. The side consisted of Don Turner, Gerry Reaseley, the Matthews brothers, Bruce Graham, Chris Cowell, Mick Pilgrim, Geoff Robinson and the debutants, myself and 'Yosser Hughes.' (That makes 11 – but who was in goal? –ed)

I think I had been told that I was "In" at training, and the rest of the week had been spent polishing my boots to such an extent I could have paraded at Sandhurst, and numerous trips to the toilet

The pre-match team talk from 'Pops' galvanised us – no George Wing in those days – and we went on to win, Jim Matthews bagging a brace as I recall. "Yosser" and I played out of our skins and received a respectful pat on the head at the end. Then into a dingy Clubhouse and copious amounts of beer before the long trek home back to Mummy. Anyway, back to this week's game

The call had come on Wednesday night and my wife took it. I returned home at midnight and a note awaited me: "Neil rang; 1st Xl Saturday; 12-30 meet at the school" .

I gulped for breath. My knees went weak. My 14.5 stone frame sagged. Is this a joke? The new, youthful 1st Xl – the oldest player is 27. Most were born circa 1976 when I was at 'The Greyhound watching 'The Dammed' covered in spit (I used to go to 'The Greyhound' on a regular basis on a Sunday night – after finishing the newsletter, of course - ed) But it was true I was told. You're not that old; you're up Stu'. Don't look so blue!

The rest of the week was a time-warp; cleaning my boots, buying new socks, early to bed on Friday, check my weight – down to 14 stone in 4 days. No sex – marriage put paid to that – and no Wallington wine bars (Goddard and Billing take note)

Right; it's now 10-00 a.m. on Saturday morning. Better stretch those calves and 'strings. Take the kids out, young James and Tamara – the park will do. Return at eleven. A last clean of the boots; check my kit again. But what shall I wear? The 1st Xl are style mad

A check of the cupboard. My trendiest top, black levis and pack the wife's hair gel. I'm ready. The wife returns from 'Step' just before noon. Time to go. Time to make Ignatians suffer the Stu' tune. Out to the car. A last wave to the kids. Then the wife shouts out from upstairs. Neil rang; the game is off

"Off! Off?", I repeated. It can't be, I thought, I've cleaned my boots, new socks, gel, the dream comeback is over Straight down to McDonalds. A Big Mac or two. A flash of light. Why don't I write a match report. So back to the game. A comfortable win. Stu' Paton was outstanding in a game with a 3-0 margin. And who scored, you ask. Well, it's no secret to report the big man's task; a hat-trick for Stuey. A diving header. What a performance Team: Lake Billing.N Horswood Kendrick.N Pullen Murray Pope……PATON.S Copyright: Old Wilsonians Fantasy Football

As we have been reminded in several recent newsletters, the last few games for the 3rds are crucial to our promotion hopes. That was until today's fiasco. Our opponents, Witan, had already succumbed to us by 5-4 earlier in the season. We expected this game would be played at Hayes but, instead, we were banished to Coneyhall

The pitch was miniature in size, laying on a one in five gradient and was ankle deep in mud. Witan, being a very physical side, with the majority of their players well over six feet tall, found the small pitch easy to play on, with powerful kicking from end to end. The 3rds, needing to play neat, running football, found themselves with no room to move and not enough weight to hold their own in midfield

After 30 minutes of a hard contest the 3rds found themselves 3-0 down but, thanks to some brief spells of good football, TED GIBBONS made it 3-1 by half-time

The second half brought a really good passing movement and BOB FAVELL slotted home an excellent chance to make it 3-2. But we soon found ourselves well and truly bogged down and unable to force our way past the half-way line and went 7-2 behind.

BOB FAVELL and JOHN BRITTAIN managed to finish off two more good moves but we still lost 7-4 to a team whom, under fair conditions, we had a chance of beating. Our promotion hopes are not yet completely extinguished but our chances must be slim. Perhaps we can pull out all of the stops and just scrape home. Anon

The 4th's match against Leisure Arts at Eden Park saw the centre of the pitch much too muddy for constructive football, the wings being the only way to goal

Trevor Stevens began to distribute the ball well and found Mike Harris, who crossed to ROGER MATTHEWS, who scored with a Hately-type header. The 4ths then showed more confidence, John Drabwell and John Clarke combining well with a pass to Lou Barry, who slipped the ball to MIKE HARRIS, who showed perseverance to beat two people and flick the ball past the goal-keeper

The third goal came through a combination of Mike Harris and ROGER MATTHEWS, the latter striking home, but with a few minutes of the first half to go Leisure Arts pulled one back. The second half was somewhat of a contrast, the ball being played down the middle far too much and the defence being careless in their passing

Our last goal came from the penalty spot, taken by JOHN CLARKE, and although Leisure Arts made it 4-3, we managed to hold on. Roger Matthews

In an eleven goal thriller the 6th XI finally capitulated by the odd goal after being 4-1 up at half-time. Our first goal came when STEVE WISSON cracked in a shot off the post and MICK PILGRIM then scored two more quick goals. Cuaco then pulled one back but the margin was soon restored to three goals when PETE CLARKE made it 4-1

The 6th XI played up the slope in the second half, and it was not long before it happened as one of Mike Pike's flying headers – who's he kidding – finally crashed into the net but, unfortunately, he was standing in his own penalty area at the time! Shortly afterwards Cuaco scored again when Pike tried to play football – this week's joke – to get out of trouble instead of clearing his lines. Cuaco equalised, unaided this time, and Tony Brighton then gave them the lead!

The 6ths fought back and STEVE WISSON leveled the scores, but the Cuaco winner squeezed in at the far post, despite a determined effort by Mike Pierrot Pikey
