MALTESE FALCON TOUR POSTPONED

Another week of curtailed fixtures due to Covid 19 precautionary measures by the SAL.

Update 3/3 (13/03/2020)
Dear Club Secretary

All SAL matched are cancelled for 14 March.

A further decision will be made at a Full Committee meeting on Tuesday with regards to the rest of the season.

You will be informed of the decision by Wednesday.

Nick Hamilton
Chairman
Southern Amateur Football League

Other Amateur Football Association games went ahead including the 3rd X1 Cup Final, the Senior Novets Cup at Hayes, won 2 0 by Alleyn Old Boys over Winchmore Hill.

At the club, the players arranged a 'Corona Cup' friendly between club X1's which ended 3 - 3

In 'All our Yesterdays' 25 years ago, club stalwarts Jonny Q and Malcolm Boxhall scored and a mention for Greg 'the probe' Smith (No idea, Ed). 50 years ago back in good old 1970, the 1st X1 won a thriller 6 – 5 despite the opposition "never being in the game"!

Have a good week, stay healthy, Ed.

The Super Vets are proud to welcome Arts Network back to Hayes

The Super Vets games against Arts Network have become a highlight of their season, so much so that two have been scheduled for the 2019/20 season, the first of which saw the OWs triumph by three goals to one in a close and entertaining encounter which could have gone either way until Mark Mace's sublime chip gave the Club's oldest – geriatric? – team some breathing space

The return fixture will take place on:

Sunday April 5th, kick-off 10-30 and will have an added resonance as the two sides will now compete for 'The Kirk Benjamin Memorial Trophy', a man whom we all remember with great affection and who played in previous encounters between the two sides

As you will recall, the Club paid tribute to Kirk at the recent 'Mac' McAlister Vice Presidents and Friends day on February 8th when a plaque was unveiled in his honour which prompted wife Sophie to say: "Thank you all so much for the warm welcome and as a wife and mother I am forever grateful to you for keeping Kirk's memory alive" whilst no-one will ever forget daughter Sienna's response:

"Me like Daddy's football club. Daddy's in the sky, but his friends look after me "

The OWs have always had a good relationship with Arts Network and are pleased to help them in any way they can – since becoming a charity this innovative project, which helps those with severe and enduring mental health issues, has had to rely on outside funding, so this is a way in which we can do exactly that

The Club takes mental health very seriously – you only have to read Alex Forbes's weekly update of events to understand this – and supports and helps those who are so cruelly afflicted in this way

As well as the game Arts Network will also be running a raffle to raise much needed funds and have pledged that it will be used for a 'special' project, whilst some colouring sheets will be in evidence, which will be of particular interest to members of our junior section

So please come along and support this worthy cause, enjoy the football, see the winning team presented with the trophy in Kirk's memory, learn more about mental health and take part in the raffle. And, of course, the Bar, as ever, will be open – what more could you ask for?

A TRUE 'WILSONIAN' TEAM 6th Xl 3 Old Wokingians 2

On a pitch that looked as if it had fielded an evening of Stock Car Racing the night before, it was always going to be hard work. The team consisted of half of the Wilson family but, unfortunately, Mrs Wilson was unable to play due to shopping commitments

We started the game well, with nobody having a clue of anyone else's name. (Try Wilson – ed) Before long Wilson Junior made a break down the left and released DANNY ' Please can I wash the shirts this week so I can play next week' BLAKE to slot neatly under the on-coming 'keeper

After further pressure a long throw-in from Tim 'Run out of steam' Parsons opened the way for GREG 'The Probe' SMITH to send the ball skying into the roof of the net on its way up to Apollo 6 and we furthered our lead with yet again the Blake/Wilson Junior combination, DANNY BLAKE slotting home from inside the area

Half-time came and we were confident that a rout was imminent

Within a minute Wokingians had pulled a goal back by lobbing Paul 6" 4' Britton with a speculative shot. The whole team panicked and before long there was only one goal in it, with their striker sliding the ball under the advancing and sprawling Paul Britton, and there was still time for the 6th Xl to throw it away, with Duncan Lewis throwing the ball over our 'keeper's head for their forward to miss the easiest chance of the season

Finally a word of thanks for the Wilson brothers and their friends for helping us out at the last minute Paul Britton

With the result being as close as it was it would seem that there would be a lot to report. However, the 1st XI's attack just about managed to score more goals than the 1st XI's defence! Edgware were never in the game, believe it or not. Still, it is nice to know that all the mistakes for the season have been made, in one game, too!

Dave Cohen played for the injured Bill Morley and faced the same problem that has confronted Bill for the past few games at right-back – on nearly every attack he was faced with at least two opponents. This takes a little getting used to but Dave seemed to get along fine and rounded off a good game by scoring as well. The other goals came from LES SIMNER (2), DAVE BARTLETT (2) and GERRY REASELEY.

The 2nd XI's surge towards the championship continues with another two points; European soccer looms nearer. Adapting our tactics to a fast, greasy surface, we began like Stenhousemuir (bottom of Scotish Division Two) but finished like Manchester City; is there a better team?

Colfes were allowed a one goal start when a low corner was deflected home by their centre-forward but, although still not playing with any poise, we exerted pressure, going close before 'YOGI' (Lorimer) TAYLOR seized on a corner nodded down by your correspondent and hammered in an unstoppable shot from 18 yards

Instead of gaining encouragement from this our game went further to pieces and although our defence gave little away, most of the rest of the first half was passed aimlessly in mid-field but we, rather needlessly, gave a second goal away just as the referee blew up for half-time

The half-time Jaffas were obviously doped for we began like Shamrock Rovers and looked a beaten side. Then, after some ten or fifteen minutes, Rodney (Marsh) Warboys collapsed in a tackle; ten men and a goal down. The effect of the Jaffas then wore off and our Captain (Birds-Eye) kindled the Dunkirk spirit – even Si' (Cat) Wills woke up

Within seconds your correspondent (nothing to do with the Divorce courts) beat ten men in a mazy run – nine of ours and one of theirs – flicked the ball to Alan (Ball) Carpenter, who touched it to Alan (Alfred) Marks. A hammer blow struck the bar, 'Yogi' hit the post from the rebound and finally Alan Carpenter's shot looked like bisecting the rugby posts when it was handled. Your author seized on the half-chance penalty, sent the referee the wrong way and we were level

Minutes later Brian (Labone) Turner, still looking for the last supper, wrong footed the defence and 'YOGI' slipped the ball past the 'keeper for our third. We were now in rampant form, Brian Turner covering the middle of the field in amphibious guise

Our fourth was only minutes away, TONY MAUNDER rising like a salmon – or maybe a rat up a rope – and nodding the ball shrewdly to the 'keeper's injured left side. Europe here we come – if we get the new shirts in time. W (Peter Wilson) Burgoyne

Going behind early in the second half the 3rds hit back immediately when a shot from Bob Favell was palmed out and LOU BARRY slotted the ball home. We then came under constant pressure and, within a matter of minutes, were three goals down. However, the 3rds rallied and before the final whistle scored a fine goal when Ted Gibbons crossed the ball for BOB FAVELL to score. Anon
